

WHAT'S NEW

COLOR DOMINATES!

NEW SUNBRELLA COLORS AND PATTERNS DEBUT.

This market color ruled the showroom. The Joe Ruggiero Sunbrella Collection began with a Classic Beige Group and by adding color created different color groups featuring, algae greens; soft, dusty pinks; deep blues, and water color blues. As a centerpiece to the collection Deville/Parfait pictured above was used as the bed hangings and upholstery accents in the room, designed as a master bedroom suite. New case goods for Gat Creek and new art for W.King Ambler were also introduced.

Joe Ruggiero introduces his new Sunbrella Collection at the High Point International Furniture Market. One Hundred and Twenty fabrics in the Miles Talbott line ready for immediate delivery. This is one of the largest collections available.

NEW LENOX COLLECTION INSPIRED BY MID CENTURY DESIGN.

The new upholstery frames for market were designed to add new style direction to the collection. The Lenox sofa and chair were inspired by Mid Twentieth Century designs and give a sleek new look to the upholstery designed by Joe Ruggiero and his signature modernist style. An addition to the Salon group is a comfy chaise that was shown in a luxurious Sunbrella velvet in antique beige; which can also be called camel. Two hassocks; one in leather and one in fabric of choice were inspired by small Moroccan tables. These pieces are suitable for side tables or bunched in front of a sofa as a cocktail table.
