We Wish You A Wonderful Holiday!
Traveling 2012 & Meeting You!

As the holiday season approaches we want to wish everyone the peace and joy this season can bring to all those who will be celebrating with family and friends. We are also preparing our travels throughout the United States and Canada and the cities we will visit for 2012. These trips mean so much to me. I enjoy the people I meet and those who are selling and using my products. The enthusiasm I encounter, certainly gives me great encouragement and inspires me to create. Thank You for this.

OUR NEW TEXTILLERY COLLECTION OF DECORATIVE THROWS. EASY CARE.

This past market we introduced fourteen new Textillery throws. These throws are all woven with Sunbrella fibers and are designed to be used outside and inside. The "easy care" nature makes these woven treasures easy to wash and dry and also very easy to care for no matter where you use them in your home. We have begun with a neutral palette but will be adding subtle colors as the collection grows. We are extremely proud of our association with Textillery and believe this latest addition to the Joe Ruggiero Collection will add another dimension for Sunbrella and a very useful addition to our "Total Home" story as we continue to develop new products.
