

What's News

Sunbrella Hosts Designers

At the Historic House, Clifton, Virginia Designers Meet Joe.

Clifton, built in the 1700s was the former home of Thomas Jefferson's son-in-law and is now the charming Clifton Inn. The Inn was the site for a luncheon to present the new Joe Ruggiero Collections for Sunbrella and Miles Talbott Furniture along with wood furniture for Gat Creek. The Charlottesville, Virginia area interior designers and retailers were invited to hear Joe speak, see the new products and enjoy a luncheon over looking the beautiful gardens of the estate.

Look for more future events.

Jefferson Inspires!

"During our visit to Charlottesville, I had the pleasure of visiting Monticello, the home of Thomas Jefferson. I was inspired and moved by his exceptional talents for design & landscaping." Joe Ruggiero

"AMERICAN LIFESTYLES" IS THE FOCUS FOR THE NEW JOE RUGGIERO SPRING INTROS

Four new fabric groups will be launched in the Miles Talbott showroom during April Market. Ruggiero's color story for spring emphasizes a soft touch of spa blues and cool grays, along with one of the most American of all colors- Denim. "Joe's fabrics this market combine an American spirit theme with the 'power neutrals' that have made his collection so important to Miles Talbott and our customers," stated George Jordan, president of Miles Talbott. Ruggiero's New Collections emphasize market-right colorways sure to resonate at retail.