

J/R News

New Sofa Introduction

A look to the past. Inspired by Chippendale & Pet Friendly Too!

The International Furniture Market in High Point, North Carolina : April, 2012. The Joe Ruggiero Collection introduced a new sofa frame called the Yorktown. As Ruggiero stated, "I have always been inspired by Classic design, however I am also looking to the way people live today and I want to design for today's lifestyles. I also want my furniture to be Kid and Pet Friendly so people can really enjoy their homes and with my Subrella collection they can be assured of easy care environments."

"AMERICA'S HERITAGE" FABRIC COLLECTION TO DEBUT

Drawing inspirations from America's rich cultural heritage, Joe Ruggiero will feature broad inspirational themes and deep colorways in his new Sunbrella fabric collection. Ruggiero states, "you can trace our nation's history through its' textiles and the ways in which fabrics reflect dynamic changes sweeping through our culture. These inspirations from

JOE RUGGIERO COLLECTION
AMERICA'S HERITAGE
FALL 2012 AMERICA IS IT'S
THE HISTORY OF MOVING IN TEXTILES

American heritage are powerful and timeless, which assures that they will resonate with the home decor marketplace." The Collection is comprised of three groups, Native American, Men's Suiting and Coastal, each with its' own unique story. The lead group was inspired by the designs of our country's first inhabitants.