Spring brings The American Classics Introductions for April 2013 High Point Furniture Market.

Joe Ruggiero's emphasis for Spring, 2013 will be "Made in America." From hand stitching & quilt making in the Colonial era to the geometric apparel fabrics from the 1970s. The new fabrics will surprise you as we employ the latest Sunbrella technology.

SUNBRELLA/MILES TALBOTT MEET TO DISCUSS INTROS FOR THE JR COLLECTION

The "twice-yearly" tradition of meeting at Joe Ruggiero's studio/home to discuss new introductions for textiles, furniture and other related products, has become an important part of the licensed manufacturers who produce the Joe Ruggiero Collection. This year George Jordan, President of Miles

Talbot Furniture; Greg Rosendale, Brand Manager Textiles, Sunbrella; Greg Voorhis, Design Manager, Sunbrella & Emily Cosgrove designer, Sunbrella JR fabrics, attended the two day meetings. "Meeting 'face-to-face' is the best way to brainstorm & discuss new ideas." states, Joe Ruggiero.
