A New Look For JOE!

At Furniture Market we introduced a New look for the JR Group!

JOE studio makes its debut at the International High Point Furniture Market. The reaction to JOE was even better than expected with many customers ready to purchase this more contemporary look for the Joe Ruggiero Collection. The Maison Modular Group (pictured) sold well with an extra wide chaise and plenty of comfort for today's families, pets and guests. We also had great reaction to the JOE Studio table (pictured right) from Gat Creek. All made in America from Miles Talbott.

HIGH POINT UNIVERSITY

The design students from High Point University are an important part of "set up" in the Joe Ruggiero Showroom. This year we had one of the most enthusiastic groups of students help designer Joe Ruggiero install the showroom. "Each year I welcome these students as part of our on-going program of allowing students to help during crucial periods of selling & designing Home Furnishings. This is a commitment my wife & I have had for years & we believe this is extremely important to the industry"
